

Comp Laude® Award: People's Choice

Kristy Sands

Kristy Sands is Vice President of Marketing and Communications at Gallagher Bassett.

Throughout her 27 year career as insurance professional, Kristy has served as claims operations branch manager, account manager, and producer. Professionally, she has experience in all lines of insurance coverage, with workers' compensation and innovative applications as her main areas of expertise.

Kristy is the winner of the 2018 Comp Laude Awards - People's Choice award for "Bubble Burst", her talk on how a 6 minute event affected her family and community after the Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School shooting. She has also presented at WCI on loss control and overall health and wellness from a workers' compensations claims perspective. She has also been nominated for an In Touch award, as a "Woman Leading the Way" in the Florida Workers' Compensation market.

Kristy also serves on the boards of WCI Gives Back/Give Kids the World and Dive In Miami, A Lloyds of London global initiative, promoting diversity and inclusion in the insurance industry.

