CALTECHLIVE! SERIES
For over 50 years, Caltechlive! has been a gateway to world-class scientists, artists and speakers. Participation in the arts encourages individuals to broaden their thinking while providing a creative outlet in which to express their thoughts and ideas.

COLEMAN CHAMBER MUSIC SERIES
Founded in 1904 by Alice Coleman, the Coleman Chamber Music Association is one of the oldest organizations in the United States dedicated to the presentation, understanding and enjoyment of chamber music.

PASADENA FOLK MUSIC SERIES
Founded by two Caltech graduate students in 1983, the Pasadena Folk Music Society has presented the best in folk music from around the country and around the world.

THE EARNEST C. WATSON LECTURE SERIES
Since 1922, The Earnest C. Watson Lecture Series has brought Caltech’s most innovative scientific research to the public. Geared toward a general audience, the lectures are part of the Institute’s ongoing commitment to engage the community through education and outreach. This series is free and held on select Wednesdays at 8 PM October through May.
